

Imagine if you could spend an afternoon with dozens of accomplished financial planners.

What questions would you ask?

Now you can do just that ... at a fraction of the cost ...
and without a sales pitch!

Just Give Me the Answer$ is like having a personal financial planner in your pocket. This essential money management guide, set out in an easy-to-read question and answer format, provides straight answers to your most pressing financial questions. Find and read just the information you need – right when you need it. Read one money management tip at a time, or the entire book cover to cover. This exciting new book is filled with general guidelines and targeted information that will make YOU a better personal money manager. Realize your most important life goals by implementing the advice or just tackle your most urgent financial concerns with greater insight, knowledge and awareness. Look for it on bookstore shelves (and online book stores) in April 2004!

You've got questions – this book has the answers!

Can't wait for the book
to come out?

Learn about America's premier network of hourly, as-needed financial planners at www.GarrettPlanningNetwork.com

The Garrett Planning Network, Inc.

Dearborn
Trade Publishing
A Kaplan Professional Company