Financial Planner

Soft-spoken certified financial planner Kyarsip is a rarity in the world of finance.

Not only is the 46-year-old one of a small number of fee-only advisors (which means he doesn't take a commission) but also the native Tibetan is a genuinely nice man.

"I really prefer to work with the regular person," says Kyarsip of the solo practice he opened in 2002.

But don't let the laid back demeanor fool you.

When it comes to money, the longtime kung fu enthusiast knows when to hustle.
